Steward’s Training

Saturday, April 11th, 2015
Boston Medical Center - FGH Building
820 Harrison Ave
Boston, MA 02118

AFSCME Council 93 will be conducting a Union Steward’s Training for any AFSCME member that is interested in attending. All members and current or newly elected Union Officers and Stewards are urged to attend.

The training will cover such topics as:

- Rights of Union Members and the Local Union Steward, such as “Weingarten Rights”, Duty of Fair Representation, Information Requests, etc.
- Source of the “Union’s” Strength and Power
- What constitutes a Grievance? Past Practice?
- Grievance administration, writing, investigating and presentation

Training runs from 8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Lunch will be provided. You will only need to bring a copy of your contract.

If you are interested in attending, please contact Mark Bernard at (617) 367-6033 or via e-mail at mbernard@afscme93.org no later than March 31st, 2015.

*We must receive your name, phone number, mailing address and/or e-mail address and your Local #. Class size is limited to 30.